“COLINAS DE GARZÓN” IS THE ONLY
NEW WORLD’S EXTRA VIRGIN OLIVE OIL
DISTINGUISHED IN THE 2013 EDITION
OF THE MOST IMPORTANT INDUSTRY
COMPETITION WORLDWIDE

The International Olive Oil Council (IOOC) extra virgin olive oils annual competition, the Mario Solinas Quality Award, is the quintessential event of the olive growing industry. In the 2013 edition 110 oils were presented: 43 from Spain, 4 from France, 15 from Greece, 1 from Israel, 1 from Italy, 41 from Portugal, 4 from Tunisia and 1 from Uruguay; resulting finalists 6 Spanish oils, one Portuguese, one French and one Uruguayan; who received their medals and certificates at the IOOC headquarters in Madrid.

In this way, the extra virgin olive oil of Agroland is the only winner from outside Europe in this competition at a global scale.

AGROLAND PLANTATION RECEIVED THE SPECIAL AWARD AS BEST OLIVE LANDSCAPE IN THE 2013 EDITION OF
THE EXTRASCAPE INTERNATIONAL
COMPETITION, HELD IN ITALY

The Italian producers association directed by Francesco Travaglini, in conjunction with a network of local universities analyzes diverse landscapes worldwide under their aesthetic, functional, environmental and economic aspects, according to different criteria such as sustainability, biodiversity, respect for the environment and in harmony with their environment. The distinction awarded to Agroland as the "Best Olive Landscape" is for its Garzon olive grove, in Uruguay, which was considered "a model" by the jury of the landscape.
